ABSTRACT

This bibliography is divided into five sections. The first cites directories dealing with programed instruction and educational technology. In the second section are listed general books on programed instruction, while the third section cites books on the application of programed instruction to language teaching. The fourth section lists relevant articles, and the last section cites programed courses for teaching English as a foreign language. Entries include both American and European publications, most published since 1965. (CIK)
